Course of study

Classes are available from ages 2 to adult. The primary focus is to help the student develop poise, control, flexibility, balance, and the most important self confidence.

Training ranges from recreational enjoyment to competitive for the more serious students. Exam work is available at all levels, and students are given the opportunity to perform on stage in the annual recital. All classes are a minimum of 1 hour.

Babes in motion Ages 2-3 years.

This is an introductory level of dance focusing on developing basic skills.

Petites in motion Ages 3-4 years.

This is a continuance of babies in motion, with more emphasis given to technique and musicality.

Kinderdance Ages 4-5 years.

This is our transition from our introductory level to more structured individual disciplines of dance

Ballet Ages 5 years and up.

Ballet is the foundation of all forms of dance. It develops poise and grace and is a must for the serious dancer.

Pointe — This is for the more advanced ballet student who has reached the appropriate level.

Tap Ages 5 years to adult.

Teaches an awareness of rhythm, beat and co-ordination.

Acro Ages 5 years and up.

Develops flexibility and co-ordination combining dance steps and acrobatic movements.

Jazz Ages 5 years to adult.

Jazz is an upbeat form of dance consisting of many different styles.

Lyrical Jazz Ages 7 years and up, Must have jazz or ballet experience.

Lyrical is an interpretive form of dance combining Ballet and Jazz movements.

Hip Hop Ages 5 years and up.

Hip Hop is a form of street dance and is the newest trend of Jazz Dance using isolation movements, popping and break dancing.
